BARODA CUP

His Highness Shri Fatehsinghrao P. Gaekwad contributed to the world of Polo the monumental Baroda Cup. The multifaceted Maharaja of Baroda and acclaimed politician was also a gifted cricketer and a sports enthusiast. Of the many sports he liked, Polo was one. In 1974, Maharaja Fatehsinghrao P. Gaekwad instituted the Baroda Cup and its inaugural exhibition match was played on 21 December 1974. However, it was 1976 onward that the tournament became a regular fixture of the Delhi Polo Season.

BARODA CUP

HITS & MISSES

HITS:

- 1 Siddhant Sharma displayed some striking backhand shots throughout the match.
- 2 Matthew Perry masterfully converted each penalty into Goal.
- 3 Impressive backhand by Abhimanyu Pathak, timely preventing their opponent's attempts at scoring.

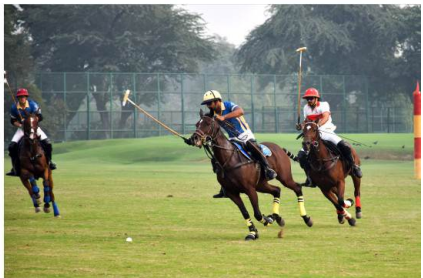

MISSES:

- 1 Abhimanyu Pathak misses a close shot that might have been the goal that could bring Sahgal Stud-Sona close to their victory.
- 2 Siddhant Sharma displays amazing control as he almost scored a goal with a single stunning shot, only for the ball to miss the goal, swerving mere inches to the nearside.
