The Victory Run

Bhopal-Pataudi Cup

JPG, New Delhi

After a whole week of overwhelming performance, team Rajnigandha Achievers and team Jindal Panther entered the finals of the Bhopal Pataudi Cup 2019 after defeating team 61 Cavalry and Sona Polo respectively in the semi finals.

The match started soon after Mrs. Kalaan did the ceremonic 'throw-in'. The finals of the Bhopal Pataudi Cup , an 8 goal tournament started with Simran taking the ball but was unfortunately blocked in. Pachó then took the ball in his control but the defensive moves of the opponent team did not have any easy chance for Padmanabh Singh. He was taken by Simran once again and almost galloping solely, Simran Shergill got on to collect the first goal of the tournament in favor of Jindal Panther...

Polo, Fashion & Wildlife

“I have always had horses. From the time I was 14, I have always had at least a horse even when I was not playing competitive Polo. For me, the passion of Polo and horses and love for animals have been interesting. One wild and one not wild. But it is fascinating to do different things in life.”

Jaisal Singh, a versatile personality who has his passion connected to photography, entrepreneurship, polo as a player and as a patron and a writer too, but we still believed there was so much more to know about him. In this quest, we settled in an elongated conversation with Jaisal Singh where he open heartedly talked about polo, fashion and wildlife.

Jaisal Singh & Polo*Getting Hooked With Polo

I started riding when I was five, and I did not really take to show jumping. I enjoyed dressage and I had friends who were playing polo. Obviously having grown up at the polo club, by the time I was 10, I was practicing on a wooden horse. I played my first game at the age of 14.

Breed

Grounded!

Cheltenham Gold Cup favourite Kemboy could be barred from running for the foreseeable future following a ban on entries and declarations registered in the ownership of Supreme Horse Racing Club. The syndicate, which has more than 20 horses with champion trainer Willie Mullins, hit the last headlines last season through the exploits of Kemboy, who was last seen winning the Punchestown Gold Cup in May.

Horse Racing Ireland has requested answers from Supreme in relation to what the governing body described as “a number of queries and concerns”, and said it has so far received “an unsatisfactory response”.

The Marwari Breed

The Marwari or Malani is a rare breed of horse from the Marwar (or Jodhpur) region of India. Known for its inward-turning ear tips, it comes in all equine colours, although piebald and skewbald patterns tend to be the most popular with buyers and breeders. It is known for its hardiness, and is quite similar to the Kathiawar, another Indian breed from the Kathiawar region southwest of Marwar. Many breed members exhibit a natural ambling gait. The Marwari horses are descended from native Indian ponies crossed with Arabian horses, possibly with some Mongolian influence.

The Rathores, traditional rulers of the Marwar region of western India, were the first to breed the Marwari. Beginning in the 12th century, they espoused strict breeding that promoted purity and hardiness. Used throughout history as a cavalry horse...

Learning Leadership

Have you ever wondered how an equestrian animal plays a role in building your leadership skills? Give you an amount of education in leading your lifestyle and managing your commercial, social and economical business? Not only this, but also how to lead a life having dominated your emotional stability, psychological hindrances and overcoming your physical parameters. Quiet until now, this knowledge was unknown to us. In fact the idea itself was in the clouds somewhere, but with Isabelle surveying and learning the art, we now have access to this beautiful mystery of learning leadership from a horse. The woman who understands emotional stability of horses and treats them as the only source of achieving great leadership qualities.

An Austrian, Isabelle Hasleder came to India 11 years ago for an engineering internship in Auroville. The young woman was always enthusiastic about horses. Isabelle hasleder has been fascinated with horse riding from a very tender age. She was gifted her first horse when she was 12 years. “As a horse rider you are always looking to go higher(in jumping), ride faster and enter in tougher competitions,” said Isabelle when asked about her fascination...

Calling for luck

Horseshoe has been considered a symbol of goodluck since ages, but in recent times it has become more of a fashion after it appeared as a piece of necklace in the movie “Sex and the City”. Horseshoe bringing good luck has stayed in the tales of the past making the story substantial. The prolonged belief goes back to old age where the devil asked a blacksmith to attach horseshoes to his feet. The astonished blacksmith did as he was asked to. He nailed the devil’s feet with horseshoe, although it caused a lot of pain to the devil. The blacksmith would remove the horseshoe only if the devil affirm not to enter anyone’s home where a horseshoe would be hung. The horseshoe in current scenario is used to guard from negative and evil energy. Say it a tale or superstition, but it’s been a tentative belief among population that horseshoe bring goodluck. Not only this, horseshoe is also used as a symbol of positive energy and goodluck at scottish marriages and other holy days. Horseshoes have been an emblem of great luck. Also many studies have reported that superstitions bring strong luck as they powered by strong empowering beliefs...
