The strokes for the final battle

After the Jaipur Polo Season had to constantly fight with the rains for letting the game get into action, the Gen Amar Singh Kanota Cup finally witnessed the finals.

Chukker 1 : The first chukker for the final match got into action with HH Maharaja Sawai Padmanabh Singh leading the way and bagging the first goal for his team. Kuldeep Rathore with partnership of Daniel got the second goal for Sahara Warriors. Salim goes for a long shot, and the ball rolls out of play. The match is into action once again, Simran leading the way, passing it to Sameer Mecca who gives a strong backhand, favouring Pacho to grab a goal. Venkatesh taking the ball away despite being chased by Daniel, gets the first goal for Jindal Panthers. This marks the end of the first chukker...

Magpie, owned and played by JP Clarkin, was voted Best Playing Pony

Large crowds turned out for the final matches of the season at Cowdray Park Polo Club on Sunday 22 September. The last in the series of HPA tournaments, the 12 goal Autumn Cup supported by Fortunis Capital, was entered by seven teams with Ana Escobedo's Ojo Caliente and George Pearson's Cowdray Vikings making it to the Final. The match was closely tied until the last chukker. But the extraordinary performance of team Ojo Caliente since the start of the game helped them seize the title with 6 goals to 5 by the end of the match.

Caroline Hunge presented the Autumn Cup on behalf of Fortunis Capital to Ana Escobedo and prizes to all players.

Winners of The Chairman's Trophy

The Images of Polo Best Playing Pony prize for Chrissie. This English Thoroughbred, which heralds from Alan Kent's Madams Farm, was played in the third chukka.

In securing this trophy, the penultimate cup of the 2019 season, Tchogan denied the Chairman of the Guards Polo Club to take this as an opportunity to make history. Brian Stein and his Ockholt team, in partnership with Tunde Karim's Shoreline, reached the final of the competition, the first time in the tournament's history that a sitting Chairman has played in the competition.

Sadly for Brian, Tchogan were too good for Ockholt/Shoreline, defeating them 4-2. Tchogan played well as a team throughout the four chukkas, ensuring them victory. Ludo Ephson was rewarded with the Most Valuable Player prize.

Closing Of The 64th Season

Award night at Guards Polo Club

Guards Polo Club hosted its annual Chairman's Awards Evening on Saturday night, the penultimate day of the 2019 season. The Clubhouse was packed with patrons, players, members and friends to celebrate an incredible season. There was plenty to celebrate, not least the number of matches. Brian Stein revealed that the Club had played 579 games this year.

In addition to a fabulous Mosimann's menu, plenty of Laurent-Perrier Champagne, pre-dinner entertainment from a steel band, courtesy of George Hope, and post-dinner dancing to Soul Patrol, sponsored by Alejandro Penafiel, several players headed home with the Club's coveted awards.

Closing Of The 64th Season

The night got high in celebration with the prize distribution. Here's a complete list of who grabbed what.

Brian Stein presented the following awards:

- Most Useful Umpire: Leon Allen
- Most Improved Player: Heiko Voelker
- Best Handicapped Player: Pedro Harrison

Winners of Autumn Nations Trophy

Will Harper collected The Polo Magazine's Most Valuable Player prize in the final of the Autumn Nations Trophy

The BHC team won the finals of the Autumn Nations Trophy under the guidance of Will Harper who also won the Most Valuable Player award later in the evening. He was playing alongside Jack Richardson Ollie Cork and the patron and BHC produced a blistering performance in equally blistering heat to defeat the defending champions, Simon Arber's Four Quarters Orange, 7-5. At the end of the third chukka BHC had a commanding, 6-2 lead and looked a shoe-in to add Mo's name to this trophy for the third time. BHC had previously won in 2015 and 2016. Four Quarters Orange's Tom Brodie had other ideas though, firing through an incredible, almost impossible goal, that commentator Ebe Sievwright called "the best goal of the game". Tom found the flags from the next throw-in and suddenly Four Quarters Orange were back in the game. BHC responded via Jack Richardson, who had been strong throughout the match, firing a big hit up to Will to increase their lead to 7-4. With three goals in as many minutes, the many spectators were loving this competitive spectacle so late in the season. Four Quarters converted a penalty in the final minutes of the match but ran out of time before they could score again.

PABLO JAURETCHE

Introducing Pablo Jauretche

Pablo Jauretche, a professional polo player and a coach from Argentina. Formerly playing at +8 handicap, Pablo has been a part of 30 seasons over 30 distinct countries. These seasons include the Palermo Argentine Open, along with other major tournaments.

Over the time, Pablo has inculcated an interest in the learning and the teaching passion. Accumulating all that vast experience that has culminated in him, Pablo went on to become a qualified coach with a validated by “Coaching Course” at the University of Buenos Aires.

Pablo Jauretche with LA POLO

Pablo Jauretche's motto behind the recent visit to India was to deep root the concepts of polo among the Indian polo players and aspirant through a three-week camp session organised by the national governing body of polo in India, the Indian Polo Association.

In a quick glimpse, let's know Pablo Jauretche

What is Polo for you?

Polo is like a blessing. Like they say, Polo has given me the passport to the world.

Player or Coach?

Both, I love them both. You can do it individually and also simultaneously.

Is Polo a passion?

More than Polo, it is the horses that I am more passionate about.

Polo on Indian turf...

In India, the players who are in Polo are sound horsemen and they are all keen on progressing and challenging themselves. Although there are some things lacking... (To read the complete input, click on the link below)

Favorite sport apart from Polo...

I like the extremes; Paragliding and now I am getting into sky-surfing. I like any sport with sensations.

Why Polo and not Pato?

In my opinion, players who played Pato and then went to Polo, never returned, because Polo gave them things Pato did not.

The unstoppable drive in you...

Lately I really get this passion about teaching and more than that it is for learning. It is a learning passion, because when you give, you receive.

Her Royal Highness Princess Sirivannavari Nariratana Rajakanya will compete in the inaugural International Equestrian Federation (FEI) Asian Championships in Pattaya in December. At this she was found saying, “I am very honoured to represent my country as a rider. Every time I see my name and the Thai flag, it’s like, wow!” Adding further, she said, “Any kind of sport makes you strong but this is more soulful.”

It will be the first time in history that Pattaya will be hosting the championship. At this, the Princess said, “It’s time for us to shine and to show the world what we can do.”

Run For Being The Richest Race

Saudi Cup

Saudi Arabia

Saudi Arabia
to come up with the richest race

Image: GulfTomorrow

When Diomed piped Boudrow to victory in the original Derby in 1780, owner Sir Charles Bunbury pocketed a little over £1,000. Britain's richest race offers more than £921,000 (more than $1 million) to the winner these days, but even that dwarfed. And it seems horse racing's financial arms race is gathering pace, with the title of world's richest race changing hands three times in the last two years. Until 2016, the Dubai World Cup was the market leader, with the winner that year California Chrome scooping nearly $5 million. Then came a new edition to the calendar, the Pegasus World Cup in Florida, with an eye-watering purse of $12 million with almost $7 million going to first-placed Arrogate.

But next year, a megabucks sum of $20 million will tempt owners and trainers to Saudi Arabia for the inaugural Saudi Cup. A first prize of $10 million, three times as much as for Europe's richest race the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.

Breaking Stereotypes- Saudi Arabia

Saudi Cup

Saudi Arabia

Saudi women are breaking stereotypes

Image: Step Feed

Saudi women have been breaking barriers in sports this year; despite facing social stigmas, there's no stopping them. It was announced that a new sports tournament, the Saudi Cup that is a horse race set to be the "world's richest," is opening up to women in the kingdom.

The Chairman of Saudi Arabia's Jockey Club, Prince Bandar bin Khalid Al Faisal, said women are going to be allowed to join the inaugural Saudi Cup race next year. "Men and women will be treated equally," he said, adding that women are "most welcome" to participate in the race. "We are going through a transformation in the kingdom. We are learning, but we are opening up and there is a political will to go there," he said.

ARTISTIC STROKE

The bold blue and grey painting by Guy Allen

Image: Guy Allen

It is hard to not to fall in love with horses, for they are powerful, beautiful, graceful and intelligent. They work with their minds while their eyes are fixed in future. This similar extravaganza has been painted in forms of colors on big canvases to bring life to the glory of horses. LA POLO goes through a lot of paintings, to bring in the end 7 of its favorite equestrian artists who celebrated the lives of horses like no one else did. Here is the captured essence:

Guy Allen: The young, successful international artist is trained in contemporary printmaking. His authentic pieces of exotic art are nothing short of splendid spirits.

He explores and depicts animal subjects and emotional dynamics related to it. The depiction of an intricately detailed etching with an old-fangled sense, Allen has pictured his imagination with a modern repurpose by aesthetically impacting the bold block of blue tinge with the traditional horse symbol of a tricky nature...

Fashion Over The Years

The imagery of fashion has been a wide spectrum of trends and facade because there's always a history to what the men have been. The idea of fashion is a long run blood induced vein we hold in ourselves. While we seek to look unbelievable, it also comes along with the stature of command over our own lifestyle and the era we seek to live in. That's how men's fashion has evolved from the idea of formality to the place where they seek comfort in everything they wear. They've witnessed themselves in all ends of demeanor when it came down to their clothing.

1910-1919's - The detachable collar era. The men of this era happened to love simpler suits with a lighter end to the fabric in shades of charcoal, black and navy when it transcended from the early 1910s through the later years witnessed a flabbergastingly new change in the men's daytime suits with their straightforward single-breasted jackets with narrow lapels and high buttons paired with straight trousers. This was later set in the dials where button-down shirts came along in pastel strips adorned with a club collar and a tie. These collars were known...

Remembering The Fashion Legend

Coco Chanel: The fashion legend

Image: Hey Alma

One of the most sought after fashionista Coco Chanel landed into this planet in the year of 1883 with the moniker of Gabrielle Bonheur Chanel. Having a life full of miseries and predicaments she never thought in her wildest of dreams that she would become the fashion girl of this universe and would be able to persist in her timeless styles of silhouettes even after decades of her death. Hence she has set an example and has become an arresting inspiration for those who admire her and are the connoisseurs of her authentic silhouettes.

In her early days, she was brought up by her mother who died and left her in this world full of predicaments. After this, her father who was a peddler had left her and handed baby Chanel into the hands of an orphanage wherein she was coddled and corseted by amiable nuns...
