GUARDS POLO CLUB

The field of the Guards Polo Club

The club was founded in 1955 as 'Household Brigade Polo Club' with HRH The Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, as its President. In 1969, it was renamed to what it is known as today. In the past 63 years, the club has grown by leaps and bounds. It today is the largest polo club in Europe in terms of memberships and number of grounds. Located within the Great Park at Windsor, it is covered by the beautiful and natural surroundings of the 'Smith's Lawn'. The lawn is believed to be named after a gamekeeper at the time of Restoration in the 17th century. The Guards Polo Club hosts many top flight tournaments such as the Royal Windsor Cup, Indian Empire Shield, Coworth Park Challenge Trophy, La Martina Varsity Day to name a few.

The Guards Polo Club has ten polo pitches on 53 hectares (130 acres), stables, paddocks and training facilities four miles away at Flemish Farm.

Brean Beach Polo will be on the section of beach opposite The Beachcomber. It is a free event with everyone welcome to spectate.

The first official Polo event at the Brean Beach is scheduled to take place on Saturday, 6th July. The free-to-watch event will see polo teams playing matches on the sand, with live commentary and music. Michael Ball from Taunton Vale Polo Club, organiser of Brean Beach Polo, said, “We’re really looking forward to Brean’s first official beach polo event. We’d love to see lots of spectators come along to see the horses and watch the polo matches. Polo is a fast-paced and exciting sport, the horses are extremely agile, and it’s thrilling to watch so close to the action.”

THE OUTRAGEOUS HORSE RACE BEGINS

Palio di Siena

Palio di Siena

Siena, Italy

The race happens twice every year. This year it will take place on 2nd July and 16th August.

A characteristically Italian event, this quick-as-a-flash horse race is a battle between the districts of the city, and thousands of locals and visitors pour into the Piazza del Campo each year to watch the spectacle unfold. The oldest horse race in the world, The Famed Palio is a game of superb skill and cunning. The Palio is an acrobatic horse race which follows a course around the edges of Siena's primitive Piazza del Campo. Ten horses take part, representing 10 of Siena's 17 contrades (districts). Each contrada has its own emblem and colours, plastered across the flags and banners that decorate the city in the days leading up to the race. Palio lets out everything that's inside of

BURBERRY CAPS

Burberry is a fashion house with its roots in British whose headquarters lie in London. Here we bring light on the distinctive Newsboy Cap, which was made with the distinctive Burberry check, was the talk of the town and the rage. It was one of the most sought after item out of the whole fashion company. However, Burberry caps are now regaining popularity and more and more people are buying them. The craze for the unique and distinctive Burberry design is now widespread and has reached beyond Britain. The caps charge around a few hundred bucks, but still continue to be highly luxurious because they offer the same quality, luxury, comfort, and chicness as other items of Burberry.

Through the 1930s and 1940s cheongsam incessantly evolved into bolder patterns with high side slits reaching up to the thighs with a body-fitted and hugging structure. Being an urban Chinese dress, which went through Europe and the vagaries of time, made it customary to pair the dress with high heels.

These days Cheongsam is getting underrated and is worn only on special or traditional occasions like weddings, ceremonies or fashion shows. Flexible and easy to carry versions of cheongsams are also used as formal uniforms at airlines or hotels.

FLASHBACK TO THE FASHION WEEK

Milan, a city host to all the favourite luxury brands commonly sees citizens on the streets dressed in Prada from head to toe. Therefore, it is always the zenith of expectations for the fashionistas waiting year-round for the fashion week. The Milan Men's Fashion Week for the SS 2020 collection, which took place from the 14th to the 17th of June once again manifested at its best bringing forth a range of brands, each showcasing its best innovations gliding through their inspirations. This year not unlike the previous years, the Milanese scene from Men's Fashion Week was a conglomeration of wearables and accessories for men. While we find the fashion labels come to a step forward every year with innovations promising uniqueness and experimentation with colour palettes, there were collections by labels we cannot just stop thinking about. To recreate the moments of exhilaration that the Milan Men's Fashion Week established this year, let us look at some of the highlights.

Montreux Jazz Festival

The Montreux Jazz Festival takes place over 2 weeks each summer in Switzerland on the shores of Lake Geneva. With ambitious programming choices and a warm welcome forged in the hospitality industry, the Montreux Jazz Festival offers a haven of peace to both artists and public—time seems to stop as the most improbable encounters become reality.

Elton John, Sting, Joan Baez and Radiohead's Thom Yorke are just a few of the top stars set to grace the stages at this summer's Montreux Jazz Festival.

Sting, the former lead singer of The Police, will open the 53rd edition of the lakeside festival on June 28 in the main Stravinski concert hall. The following day, Elton John will give the first ever open-air performance at the jazz festival – which traditionally takes place in intimate concert halls – to 15,000 fans at the Saussaz stadium, three kilometres north of the main festival area. Jazz legend and veteran producer Quincy Jones, accompanied by the Lausanne Sinfonietta Orchestra, will close the festival on July 13 with a soundtrack of his 80s hits.
